

Miracles

People expect from swamis and fakirs some kind of miracles. Some persons pose themselves as incarnation of God and they naturally try to show some miracle and people blindly follow them and treat them as God. A true Guru won't show you any miracles, he just imbibe in you a new way of perception of the things, a path for awakening yourself by yourself. He awakens the Guru in you.

Don't expect miracles
Won't happen outside of Self
They just bloom in you
